

Dual Lock™

Dual Lock™ systems for reclosable fastening of various materials replace unsightly and troublesome mechanical parts like screws, rivets, seams, etc.

These are used when it's necessary to open and close parts, when adhesive or a tape cannot be used and when mechanical fastening components (screws, nuts or seams) should not be visible, e.g., on the internal lining of trains, airplanes, buses, elevators, service shafts, false ceilings and others.